with your reasons for filing your bankruptcy case without first receiving a credit counseling briefing, your case may be dismissed. If the court is satisfied within the 30-day deadline can be granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days. A motion for extension must be filed within the 30-day period. Failure to fulfill these requirements may result in dismissal of your case. If the court is not satisfied the agency that provided the briefing, together with a copy of any debt management plan developed through the agency, must obtain the credit counseling within the first 30 days after you file your bankruptcy case and promptly file a certificate from the agency that provided the briefing with the reasons stated in your motion, it will send you an order approving your request. 3. I certify that I requested credit counseling services from the agency but was unable to obtain the services during the five days from the time I made my request, and the following exigent circumstances merit a temporary waiver of the credit counseling requirement so I can file my bankruptcy case now. [Must be accompanied by a motion for determination by the court.] [Summarize exigent circumstances here.]

2. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, but I do not have a certificate describing the services provided to me. Attach a copy of the certificate and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency.

WARNING: You must be able to check truthfully one of the five statements regarding credit counseling listed below. If you cannot file another bankruptcy case later, you may be required to pay a second filing fee and you may have to take extra steps to stop whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors will be able to resume collection activities against you. If your case is dismissed and do so, you are not eligible to file a bankruptcy case, and the court can dismiss any case you do file. If that happens, you will lose creditors' collection activities.
